About T.E.A.M. 96

T.E.A.M. 96 Foundation, Inc. is a nonprofit 501(c) (3) founded in the summer of 2012 by Muhammad Wilkerson of the New York Jets. The Union County (NJ)-native has a clear vision that success needs to be contagious and shared with others. The foundation is dedicated to providing a wide range of assistance and encouragement to high school student-athletes including scholarships to college-bound seniors from Elizabeth, Linden, Rahway, Roselle and Long Island. T.E.A.M. 96 is striving to create well rounded, higher education seeking, motivated, law abiding citizens willing to give back to their communities.

Who is T.E.A.M. 96

T.E.A.M. is an acronym which stands for:

Togetherness – the unity of fellow man working together for the betterment of mankind despite differences.

Education – schooling of many kinds which positions one in place to obtain goals & dreams.

Achievement – positive results one can obtain through hard work and a structured plan.

Motivation – developing that driving force that causes one to be active & productive in all that he/she does.

96- Represents Muhammad Wilkerson, the visionary behind this organization.
