GENERAL INFORMATION

Entrance for all Linden Adult School registration and courses is via Door # 16 on the Summit Street side of the main High School building ONLY.

There will be absolutely NO SMOKING permitted on school property. The Linden Adult School reserves the right not to accept or retain as a participant in any of its activities any person whose conduct/behavior impedes the operation of the Adult School activity or affects the rights, welfare, or enjoyment of other participants.

It is not possible to send written confirmation of your registration. You will be notified ONLY if the class is cancelled, if the class has reached the enrollment limit, if schedule dates or times change, or if there are questions regarding your registration form. Full refunds will be given to anyone who enrolls in a class that is cancelled.

Because of certain possible contingencies, the Adult School must reserve the option to make any changes in course offerings, scheduling, instructors, and/or room assignments as are necessary.

If you have questions regarding the Linden Adult School, please refer all calls to the Adult School Office (908) 486-5930, Monday through Thursday, 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. or Friday 9:15 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. Please do not call the Board of Education Office or the Linden High School Main Office.

No tuition fees will be refunded
after the first class meeting.

ACADEMICS

Anyone registering for the ESL or GED course must register in person and have a Social Security card. Individuals between the ages of 16-21 wishing to enroll must come to the Adult School office to pick up a Certification of Non-Enrollment in School form, to be completed and authorized by their most recently attended high school. A photo I.D. and a Social Security card or Tax I.D. Number are required in order to register for ESL or GED classes.

These programs are supported through federal and state funds.

English for New Americans (ESL) Fee: FREE

This is a two-class-per-week program to assist foreign-born residents in gaining confidence in speaking, reading and writing the English language. Topics in citizenship will be covered.

Monday and Wednesday 6-9 p.m. Linden High School
Tuesday and Thursday 6-9 p.m. Linden High School
Instructor: Staff

High School Equivalency (GED) Fee: FREE

Are you lacking a high school diploma? This program will help to prepare you for the GED examination. All students will take a pre-test to determine which areas need additional improvement. Upon successful completion of the GED Test, students will receive a State High School Diploma. We are NOT a GED testing site.

Monday and Wednesday 6-9 p.m. Linden High School
Tuesday and Thursday 6-9 p.m. Linden High School
Instructor: Staff

Classes begin Monday, February 27, 2012 for ESL/GED
